

Name: _____

Date: _____

ACTIVITY FOR LEARNING

Chapter 1: Georgia's Land and Location Review

Chapter 1 Check In

Instructions: Use information from your textbook to mark the correct answer to each item about Georgia's land and location.

1. Which region is in the northeastern part of Georgia and includes Georgia's highest peak, Brasstown Bald, at 4,784 ft. above sea level?
 - A. Appalachian Plateau
 - B. Ridge and Valley
 - C. Coastal Plain
 - D. Blue Ridge

2. Which BEST describes the location of the Fall Line?
 - A. Between the Ridge and Valley and Blue Ridge regions
 - B. Between the Piedmont and Appalachian Mountains
 - C. Separates the Piedmont and Coastal Plain regions
 - D. Along the Atlantic coastline

3. Georgia's Ridge and Valley region is characterized by which of the following?
 - A. Timber, carpet industry, and apple farming
 - B. low precipitation, good fishing, and textile mills
 - C. many marshes and swamps, cattle grazing, and Dalton
 - D. center for aeronautics industry, heavily populated, and vast hunting areas

4. Which region is located in the southernmost part of the state and comprises over three-fifths of Georgia's land area, as well as the port cities of Savannah and Brunswick?
 - A. Appalachian Plateau
 - B. Ridge and Valley
 - C. Coastal Plain
 - D. Piedmont

5. In which region of the United States is Georgia located?
 - A. Northeast
 - B. Southeast
 - C. Northwest
 - D. Southwest

Name: _____

Date: _____

ACTIVITY FOR LEARNING

- 6. The Okefenokee Swamp is a protected area located in which region?
 - A. Piedmont
 - B. Coastal Plain
 - C. Ridge and Valley
 - D. Appalachian Plateau

- 7. In what ways do the barrier islands protect Georgia's mainland?
 - A. By blocking storms such as hurricanes from reaching the Piedmont Region
 - B. By preventing saltwater from mixing with freshwater in the Piedmont Region
 - C. By preventing saltwater from mixing with freshwater in the Blue Ridge Region
 - D. By blocking much of the wind and surf that could cause erosion to the Coastal Plain region

- 8. What is the MAIN reason the Blue Ridge region is important to the growth of Georgia?
 - A. The rich red clay soil is excellent for agriculture.
 - B. Precipitation from the high mountains provides water to the entire state.
 - C. It forms a natural barrier between the Coastal Plain and the Piedmont region.
 - D. Natural passes through the mountains established trade routes to the Midwest.

- 9. Which region has most of Georgia's major cities, the largest population, and over half of the state's residents?
 - A. Piedmont
 - B. Coastal Plain
 - C. Ridge and Valley
 - D. Appalachian Plateau

- 10. Which region is characterized by the production of pulp and paper and also includes Georgia's barrier islands?
 - A. Piedmont
 - B. Blue Ridge
 - C. Coastal Plain
 - D. Appalachian Plateau