

The United States Constitution

Three Branches of Government
Balance of Power

Executive Branch

enforce the laws

The White House

President

Vice President

Cabinet

Judicial Branch

interprets the laws

Supreme Court

9 justices

other
Federal Courts

The Supreme Court

Legislative Branch

makes the laws

The U.S. Capitol

Congress

Senate

100

Senators

House of Representatives

435

Representatives