Name .		Class	Date
Sout		ADING Our History, Our Home utionary Generation	e
	ions: Us	outh Carolina in the Building of se the information from pages 2 lowing.
1.	The war finally	when th	e British Charles Town	in December of 1782 and the fina	al peace was signed at Paris on Septe	ember 3, 1783.
2.	Henry	[from South Carolina	a] was one of the negotiators along with Benjamin	, John	, and John
3.	South Carolina	a greatly du	ring the years from 1759 to 1783. Two Wars, the	controversy, the against the British Empire, and the war within the state contr	ibuted to the misery.
4.	Thousands of	left the stat	e, taking their, slaves, and talents with them.
5.		lingered after the Loyal	list-Patriot
6.	The state's	was in chaos	s meant the state no longer had automatic access to the great the empire had provided for Carolina
7.	Many people w	ere in, and so	ome debt collectors
	and tax collect	to wo

Jame _	Class	Date
8.	To deal with disorder in the capital, the General Assembly
	Charles Town as the city of	in 1883, giving its citizens more
9.	Some of the disorder was taking on a class a	and sectional tone as the poorer
	Lowcountry.	cosingly to the
10.	The legislature created	with county courts in 1785, to give more
	access to transactions a	nd
11.	Another concession to the	landowners was a land tax that was based on	the of the land.
12.	From Charleston's point of view, probably th	e concession to the Upcountry was the reluctant agreement in 1	786 to the
	to the	of the state.
13.	The city, called, wo	uld be the first city in the United States named for	·
14.	The Articles of Confederation had created a	very central government with no or national	system.
15.	It had no to	trade deals with other nations
	or to commerce a	among the states.
16.	It could not even levy
17.	The weakness of the	did not cause the economic and social disorder, l	out it Congress in Philadelphia from the	e problems.

ame	Class	Date
18. ln 1786, t	he ap	pproved calling a	, which drew up a	a constitution.
19. South Ca	rolina's	were John Rutledge	e, Pierce Butler,
Charles F	Pinckney, and Charles Coteswo	orth Pinckney.
20. They [Sou	uth Carolina's representatives]	argued very forcefully for a	an republic run by	/ an	and elite.
21. They wan	nted control of	all	(including the slave trac	slave trade), but had to accept the
22. This allow	ved states to control commerce	their
	, but let the	governi	ment control trade
among th	ne states and with foreign nation	าร.
23. The comp	oromise also allowed federal	on impo	orts, but
	·
24. The deleg	gation [South Carolina] wanted	count	ed for the purposes of	of in the Congress, but had to settle for the famous
	-		, which allowed
three-fifth	ns of the slave population to	for represen	tation purposes.
25. The state	The states with large populations wanted representation in to be on population. The	sta	ates wanted represent	tation from each state to be
26. The		was to create	e a
	(two-house) Co	ngress.

Name _	Class	Date
27.	The number of members allotted to each state in the would be proportional to its
	The would give e	each state an number of senators (each).
28.	To become, a	would have to both houses and be	by the
29.	The product of the convention was	by the states and became the	Constitution.
30.	The first ten	(the Bill of Rights) adopted in 1791
	the national gove	ernment's over citizens and states.
31.	Government's power was also limited by	a system of and among its	, legislative, and branches.
32.	Finally, the concept of	forced the national government to powers with the	·
33.	The people of	were divided on the new Constitution.
34.	Lowcountry leaders who wanted	government to maintain order and protect property were called	·
35.	The majority of the citizens in the	feared a stronger government might interfere with their inc	lividual
36.	These more democratic Carolinians were	e called

Name _	Class Date
37.	After the new United States Constitution went into effect in 1789, South Carolina a new state constitution.
38.	The Constitution of 1790 retained most in the House of Representatives and with wealthy owners.
39.	To be to the House, a man had to at least five hundred acres of land and ten A had to own as much wealth; a, ten times as much.
40.	The General Assembly, the people, elected the and other state officeholders, judges, and most local officials.
41.	President George made a famous journey through South Carolina and other southern states in 1791 promoting national
42.	He feared that citizens would become into political parties.
43.	Two parties began to develop quickly around the personalities of his cabinet members, Alexander and Thomas  .
44.	Hamilton advocated an active and government that would stimulate and industry, build roads, improve harbors, and establish a to help regulate the economy.
45.	Jefferson and his followers would leave most of these activities to the various
46.	The party of Hamilton was called the Party; the party of Jefferson was called the Party, or simply the Republican Party.

ine	Class		Date
47. The parties s	plit over their differen	t	of the Constitution.
48. Hamilton and	Hamilton and the Federalist Party wanted the federal government to (take over) th	ne (of the thirteen states	, which approved	l because its debt wa	as the of al
the states.
49. While the Fed	deralists dominated _		in the early 1790s, the D	emocratic-Republicar	ns gradually increase	ed their strength and became the	pa	arty in both the	and the
50. The Constitu	tion of 1790 continue	d to give more	in the General Ass	embly to the Leaders in the Upcountry founded the representative Reform Association in 1794 and ne Upcountry founded	d the representative I	Reform Association in 1794 and
51. Leaders in the	ne Upcountry founded	·
51. Leaders in the		·
51. Leaders in the began	press	sure for more represe	entation for the
51. Leaders in the began	press	sure for more represe
51. Leaders in the began 52. Lowcountry leaders in the began	press	sure for more repression of give in to them until ower, influence).	entation for the il the Upcountry developed more
51. Leaders in the began 52. Lowcountry leaders in the began 53. The Upcount	press eaders did not have to (po	sure for more repressored or give in to them until ower, influence) needed a	entation for the il the Upcountry developed more
51. Leaders in the began 52. Lowcountry leaders in the began 53. The Upcount 54. Rice and	press eaders did not have to (po	o give in to them unti ower, influence). needed a or Sea	entation for the il the Upcountry developed more crop.
51. Leaders in the began 52. Lowcountry leaders in the began 53. The Upcount 54. Rice and	eaders did not have to press	o give in to them unti ower, influence). needed a or Sea	entation for the il the Upcountry developed more crop. Island
51. Leaders in the began 52. Lowcountry leaders in the began 52. Lowcountry leaders in the began 53. The Upcount 54. Rice and had brought coast and Second	eaders did not have to yry wealth to the ea Islands.	o give in to them unti ower, influence). needed a or Sea	entation for the il the Upcountry developed more crop. Island

a simple engine (or 'gin) that could rapidly remove fiber from seed, and the	Name _		Clas	s	Date	e
Kingdom began in the South. 57 planters in the Upcountry used their and influence to gain concessions from the elite. 58. Fairer representation in government for the other sections of the state was finally allowed in the of 1808. 59. The Upcountry after 1808, had a in both houses of the General Assembly. 60. The property-owning class felt so confident of its of the state's affairs that it allowed a constitutional in 1810 that extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward	56.	In 1793, Eli		produced the planters in the Upcountry used their and influence to gain concessions from the elite. 58. Fairer representation in government for the other sections of the state was finally allowed in the of 1808. 59. The Upcountry after 1808, had a in both houses of the General Assembly. 60. The property-owning class felt so confident of its in 1810 that extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward		a simple engine (or 'gin) that could rapidly remove fiber from seed, and the influence to gain concessions from theelite. 58. Fairer representation in government for the other sections of the state was finally allowed in the of 1808. 59. The Upcountry after 1808, had a in both houses of the General Assembly. 60. The property-owning class felt so confident of its of the state's affairs that it allowed a constitutional in 1810 that extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward			Kingdom b	egan in the South.
58. Fairer representation in government for the other sections of the state was finally allowed in the of 1808. 59. The Upcountry after 1808, had a in both houses of the General Assembly. 60. The property-owning class felt so confident of its of the state's affairs that it allowed a constitutional in 1810 that extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward	57.		planters	in the Upcountry use	d their	and allowed in the of 1808. 59. The Upcountry after 1808, had a in both houses of the General Assembly. 60. The property-owning class felt so confident of its of the state's affairs that it allowed a constitutional in 1810 that extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward		influence to gain of	concessions fro	m the	elite.
59. The Upcountry after 1808, had a	58.	Fairer representat	ion in governm	ent for the other section	ons of the s	state was finally
Assembly. 60. The property-owning class felt so confident of its of the state's affairs that it allowed a constitutional in 1810 that extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward 62. South Carolina was the state in the to		allowed in the		of 1808.
60. The property-owning class felt so confident of its of the state's affairs that it allowed a constitutional in 1810 that extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward 62. South Carolina was the state in the to	59.	The Upcountry aft	er 1808, had a		in both I	houses of the General affairs that it allowed a constitutional in 1810 that extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward 62. South Carolina was the state in the to		Assembly.
extended (the right to vote) to all males, even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward 62. South Carolina was the state in the to	60.	The property-own	ing class felt sc	confident of its		of the state's even if they did not property. 61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward 62. South Carolina was the state in the to		affairs that it allow	ved a constitution	onal		_ in 1810 that
61. Requiring property ownership for was an important step toward 62. South Carolina was the state in the to		extended		(the right to vote) to	o all	males, toward 62. South Carolina was the state in the to		even if they did no	ot	property.
62. South Carolina was the state in the to	61.	Requiring	property o	wnership for	V	was an important step toward	· the to all white adult males.	62.	South Carolina wa	as the	state in the _		to _ the	to all white adu	It males.	