

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

GUIDED READING

South Carolina: Our History, Our Home

Chapter 9: The Civil War

Section 3

South Carolina During the War

Directions:

Use the information from pages 278 - 281 to complete the following.

1. The state government [South Carolina] took many measures to _____ the state for a _____ war.
2. It initiated a _____ to require able-bodied men to serve in the _____ because not enough men were _____.
3. It required slave _____ to provide a certain portion of their slaves to _____ fortifications and boats on the coast.
4. It bought military _____ from _____ countries, which had to be run through the Union blockade.
5. It encouraged businesses to produce _____ products and _____ for military use.
6. _____ were the long-suffering, overworked heroes of the home front.
7. Besides running _____, many women served in positions usually held only by _____, especially in nursing, _____, running businesses, and working in _____ and government offices.
8. _____ among white Carolinians was most acute among the _____ farmers and the working _____ in the towns.
9. Shortage of _____ was often a problem.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

10. Early in the war, the cry arose that this was a " _____ man's war and a _____ man's _____," meaning that the rich men _____ to go to war and the poor men did most of the _____ and _____.
11. Shortages and high _____ often were caused by hoarding and speculation.
12. _____ is collecting and hiding a large amount of something valuable.
13. _____ is buying and selling things in hopes of a large profit but with the risk of a large loss.
14. Hoarding and speculation were considered _____ because they ignored the desperate needs of so many people.
15. _____ of the _____ government to control these practices _____ support for the war.
16. The Confederate government printed lots of _____, but it bought _____ and less as the war dragged on.
17. The _____ of paper money depends largely on the _____ in circulation and the _____ of the people in the government's ability to _____ it up.
18. From the accounts of slave owners during the war, the slaves became less _____, less _____, and more unruly.