WORKSHEET

Chapter 1: American Government and Citizenship
Section 3: The Federal Government

Writing a Bill

Directions: Add the directions here.

1. Concentrate on issues that affect the whole country; think about who will be affected by the law.
2. Research the topic of your bill, including finding some possible solutions to the problem.
3. Decide what penalties, if any, should be imposed on those who disobey the bill when it becomes law.
4. Consider what resources will be needed to implement the law (e.g., people, money, equipment). If funding is needed to implement the law, where would you get the funds?
